

Servicing

Improve reliability and cut down on expensive down time caused by breakdowns; with planned preventative maintenance which is arranged to fit in with your production schedules We can also provide you with our recommendation for service and maintenance of your conveyors; plus advise you of the minimum amount of spares that you should hold and quote you for supply those items if required? A service plan can be specially tailored to suit individual needs. Refurbishment contracts also undertaken

Â